To the Judicious and Impartial Reader

Courteous Reader,

The truly Ancient and Apostolical Faith, that¹ was once delivered unto the Saints, by our Lord Jesus Christ, and miraculously confirmed unto us, by Signs, and Wonders, and divers Gifts of the Holy Ghost,² according to the good pleasure of Almighty God. Which said Faith, and Practice, recorded in the holy Oracles of Truth, and miraculously preserved from Age to Age, even in the darkest times of Popery, and Apostacy, by the infinite Wisdom, Mercy, and Goodness of God, is yet remaining, and to be continued³ to the end of the World; and hath been manifested in all, or most Nations⁴ for the obedience of Faith; the which Preservations of the Sacred Scriptures, or Revelation of Gospel-Light therein contained, (of which this Nation hath had a grate share, especially within this last Hundred Years) is⁵ undoubtedly a very great Evidence, of the Divine Verity, and Authority of the same: And the End of God in revealing this Light of the holy Scriptures, or Gospel of Christ, is that it might be read and known of all Men, and it's our duty⁶ to believe it, and thereby come through Faith, not only to have a saving, but a satisfactory knowledg of those foundation and fundamental Truths, which have been the same in all Generations; have been and shall be transmitted⁷ more clear from Age to Age in the times⁸ of Reformation, until that which⁹ is Perfect is come, and that that which is Imperfect is done away; such addition is no Innovation, but Illustration; not a new Light, but a new Sight: The Looking-Glass slurd and cleared more or less, is the same Glass. Columbus did not make a new World, when he made a discovery of the Old.

Truth wants so much of its Glory, as it is unseen: The Understanding wants so much of its perfection, as it is short in seeing thereof.

And all Unbelief is Presumption, not Faith, which hinders Nourishment, and genders Humours.

Grace and Glory hold proportion with the Truth. Though Knowledge may be without Grace, yet Grace is not without Knowledge, according to the measure of our approach to an exact total and adequate union of the Understanding with the truth of the Gospel; so is the glory of the Truth believed, and the communion of the Soul believing.

Now after some years profession of the Ancient way, and Truths of Christ, evidenced by the holy Oracles in Scripture, we have in most cordial manner published this little Manual, or Orthodox Confession of our Faith, to the consideration of all sober Persons, and Religious, or well-meaning Protestants, that own the Authority and Verity of the sacred Scriptures; and by comparing of this our Confession of Faith, with the sacred Writ, we doubt not but they will then conclude, that those strange Conceptions, hard Thoughts, and Persecuting Reflections cast upon us, and spoken of us, will be much abated, if not wholly taken away, in all Sober Religious Protestants in England, or elsewhere, differing from us. And to that end, in this Cloudy Day, we might arrive at a more general Concord among our selves, in the main Points of the Protestant Religion, and take off the false, and unjust Accusations of the Papists, and all other Enemies of the Faith, once delivered to the Saints, by Christ and his Apostles, at least stop their Mouths, or prevent the Simple, of being deluded by them, in their boasting of the unity of their Pseudo, or Catachrestical Church.

As also their Discriminating the Protestants in England, and elsewhere, with the name of Hereticks, and Schismatics; and that they have no Agreement among themselves. And the cause is (say they) because they have no true Faith, nor infallible Judge to guide and direct them. Now that we may refute these Calumnies, and false Charges of theirs against the English Protestants, we will give them, and all others, an account of our Faith grounded upon God's holy Word, written in the Scriptures of Truth, and wrought in us by his Infallible Spirit, which inspired his holy Prophets, and Apostles, to write them for our Rule, both in Faith and Practice; and as for our Agreement in matters of Faith, there are but three main Opinions among our Protestant Professors in England, and they are commonly known by these three Names (viz.) Episcopalians, Presbyterians, or Independants, and Anabaptists, (but rightly called Baptists). Now the difference between these may be much in Ceremonies, or Circumstantial things, and in their Discipline, and Government of the Church.

But as for their Faith in most, or all of the main Fundamentals of the Christian Religion, they do agree; as may appear to every Impartial Reader, that shall consider the Thirty Nine Articles of the Church of England, and Mr. Beza's Confession of Faith, and the Confession of Faith signed and published by the Assembly of Divines, and many others by the Baptists in England.

Now if these several Confessions of Faith, be compared with this our Confession now published, it will appear we have endeavoured to unite with other Protestants aforesaid, in the main Fundamental Articles of the Christian Faith. Therefore not so divided among our selves, as we are all represented to be by the slanderous Tongues of the Papists. Nor are we in any Points of Religion, so much divided among our selves,¹⁰ as the Roman Catholicks be in their Church, notwithstanding their vain boasting of Unity.

And for other Noval Opinions in England, we have reason to believe that the Roman Catholicks have had a great hand in helping forward and fomenting of them, yet nevertheless by this our positive Creed, or Confession of Faith, it's most manifest to all Orthodox Christians, that we have sufficiently bore Testimony against their false Doctrines, as also against Atheism, Epicurism, the mad worshipping of Idols, and multiplicity of Gods, which the blind Heathen worship; the Heresie of Manichæus, who held two beginnings of Good and Evil; and also the blasphemous Opinions of the Anthropomorphites, who make God like unto Man¹¹: Which impious Idolatrous Opinions we do abominate and those wicked Opinions and Heresies, of the Macedonians, Marcionites, Valentinians, Apelles, Apollinarians, Eunomians, Ebionites, Nestorians, Eutyrians;¹² who held that the Humane Nature after the Union was indued with the properties of the Divinity, (viz.) The Divine Nature was turned into Flesh.

Manichees, Ubiquitarians, Socinians or Biddelians, Arians, Sabellians, Samosatenus, Sevetus, Patripassions, Tritheites, Anti-trinitarians, Anti-scripturians, Quakers, who have gilded over old Heresies, and gave them new Names, the better to deceive; Seekers, or such that are above Ordinances. All which said Opinions and Heresies, have been learnedly Confuted, by the Learned and Orthodox Pens of Dr. Usher. Mr. Perkins, Dr. Owen, Dr. Hall, Mr. Tombs, Mr. Hicks, and Mr. Monck, in his little Book entitled, A Cure for the Cankering Error of the New Eutyrians, and many other Orthodox Men, both Ancient and Modern, that have asserted the Truth in opposition to these and such like abominable Hereticks, and Heresies, too large to be inserted here. We have also in this our Confession of Faith, laboured to avoid the dangerous Rocks of Pelagianism, Antinomianism, Arminianism, and the Remonstrants. As also, (as well as we may) we have endeavoured to avoid the extreams of the Superlapsarians, and Sublapsarians, and oth-

¹²*Eutyries*, who thought the Union to be made so in the Natures, that the Humanity was absorpt, or wholly turned into the Divinity.—So that by that Transubstantiation the Humane Nature had no longer being. ers: Which said latter Opinions, we humbly conceive, and judge in many things, are inconsistent with God's Revealed Will in Scripture, especially that of irrelative Reprobation of particular Persons, before they have done either Good, or Evil.

But the Socinian Doctrine, and such like most dangerous Opinions, or Doctrines, which raze at once the foundation of the Christian Religion, in that they do most plainly deny, a Trinity in Unity, and Unity in Trinity; Three Persons, (viz. The Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost), and one God; and so by consequence, the only true object of Faith and Worship. As also, their damnable opinions in denying Christ's satisfaction by his Death, and Merits, to the Father's Justice for sinful Man; as also the imputation of the Mediatoral Righteousness of Christ, to every true Believer in order to his Justification, Christ having lived an holy Life, and perfectly kept or fulfilled the Law for us, without which we could never have been saved. All which Opinions, and many more, in part, or in whole, we have bore our Testimony against in this our positive Creed, or Confession of Faith. And thus it's plainly manifest to every Impartial Reader, that we have unfeignedly from our Hearts, joyned issue Concordably, with the Learned and Orthodox Pens of both the Ancients, and Apostolick, fundamental Faith; and do oppugne, as well as they, to our power, according to the Word of God, the whole Army, or Legion of Heresies, that have and do by subtil Instruments, incumber the Christian Religion. And let not any Persons, or Congregations that are separated from the Romish Religion, or Church of Rome, and yet notwithstanding hold some gross Heresie, repugnant to any of the Foundation-Articles of the Christian Faith, contained in Athanasius's, or the Apostles Creed (so called) conclude that they are so much better than they, though differing from them in other smaller Matters. And let such Congregations, or Persons, that hold, maintain, connive at or suffer these or such like Heresies, and Hereticks, (we have named, and by our Articles have Opposed and Confuted) take heed lest such Doctrine do not in the end unchurch them, especially if they do not defend, and contend for the Orthodox Faith, by bearing a Testimony against such Hereticks, according to the Rule which St. Paul gives the Churches, in Titus 3.10. to reform them.

And for any Persons to be so zealous as some seem, or pretend to be, in several Congregations, of some Duty contained in the second Table, and to slight, or make little Conscience of the Duties of the first Table, is very strange to Men of Conscience and Reason (notwithstanding it is the practice of such, as pretend to be Masters of Reason): for how can it be that such Persons can be good Christians, or have true love to Christ, that have Courage enough to speak, or act, when their own Persons, Estates, or Relations, are persecuted, or oppressed, or when some¹³ Statute-Law of Christ is broken, or misinterpreted (though this is well), and their Duty, (especially the latter), and yet make no Conscience at all to oppose, or deal with them that do take away the King's¹⁴ Dignity, Power, and Crown of Glory, or Blaspheme him by their Erroneous Opinions, or Heresies?¹⁵ And yet these must be suffered, and connived at in Congregations, which we are sure, neither consisteth with Scripture,¹⁶ or Right Reason but is indeed the proper effects of ignorance in God's Laws, as also Self-interest, and Hypocritical Partiality, or Covetous Impiety. In a word, if such Persons repent not, nor Congregations reform not, by purging out such Cankering Heresies, or Hereticks, we must conclude from God's Word, Right Reason, and Common Experience, that such things are the sad Prodrums¹⁷ of some sore and dismal Cloud of Judgments, that may sooner, or later, more, or less, (we have too much cause to fear) fall upon such Congregations, if they repent not.

And for such Persons, that through Pride, or Vain-Glory, do pretend to Singularity; in finding out new Doctrines, or Opinions, and in their Preachings, or Writings, charge the Orthodox with Plagiarism, because they speak the same Truths, Doctrine, or Principles, that the Orthodox Christians have taught, written, and delivered to us from Age to Age, according to the Analogie of Faith recorded in holy Scripture; let such glory still in this their Singularity. For our parts we do profess, and ingenuously declare to all the World, that we are far off from assuming such Singularity; but rather have studied such Singularity; but rather have studied a Concord, or Unity, with our Fore-fathers, in the good Old Way of the Gospel; and have laboured to speak in the very same Words, or Language of Canaan, that our Fore-fathers, the Godly Saints spoke in; and do desire to walk in the Ancient Footsteps of the Flock of Christ, firmly believing in the same Gospel-Covenant, and Mediator, that Noah, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and the holy Apostles, &c. believed in, and were saved by, through Faith in Christ, there being no alteration of the Covenant of Grace (as we know of), neither Objectively, nor Subjectively, it being one and the same in Substance, from the Fall of Adam, to this Day. And so the Old and New Testaments, like the Faces of the Cherubims, look one towards another, ¹³For we are sure that the denying of Baptism is a less evil, than to deny the Divinity, or Humanity of the Son of God.

holding forth one Mediator,¹⁸ and Way of Salvation by him, though revealed to us by sundry degrees, and in divers manners.

And if any Matter, we have now published, in these Fifty Articles, shall seem Noval, or Singular to any, being soberly weighed, and impartially considered by the Reader, it will appear, it is more by way of Explanation, and Accommodation, in order to a Union, than any new Matter, or Words: All the Articles being delivered in a plain and modest style, and in Scripture Language, fitted to the meanest Capacities, we not pretending to any Rhetorical, or Humane Eloquence in speaking, no farther forth than it serves to express the truth Intelligibly to others. For Reason it self, as well as Tongues, or Humane Learning, ought to be subservient to the Mind of the Holy Ghost, or Divine Mysteries of Faith, revealed in Scripture; for we believe it, ex autoritate dicentis, relying upon the Truth of him that saith it, and not upon Reason: And all the Evidence which we get by Reason, is nothing to this Certitude. For if Reason should go before, like an Usher to make way to Faith in Divine Mysteries, we should never believe. In many Divine Truths, the Schoolmen say well, Rationes præcedentes minuunt fidem, sed Rationes subsequentes augent sidem: Reasons going before Faith weaken Faith, but Reasons coming after Faith strengthen it.

For Philosophy it self, though maintained by the successive force of the greatest Wits, yet is purblind, or dark-sighted, in Divine Mysteries, and evaporates into nothing, before Divine Revelation: but Christianity, attended by its own Authority, established its Dominion,¹⁹ and raised an eternal Empire of Truth and Holiness in the World; yet the Reason of Man cannot inspire into its own preductions, or principle of Life: for the Conversion of Men and Women to Christianity, was, and is, the effect of infinite Mercy, and equal Power; and the Simple, Plain, and Divine Truths of Jesus Christ in the Gospel; shall survive its uttermost Periods, maugre all its Enemies, and greatest Opposition; although it be in a showre of Blood, yet it shall thereby be made Fruitful: According to that true Axiom, that the Blood of the Martyrs, is the seed of the Church. And by its everlasting Monuments, remain for ever, by its victorious permanent Efficacy. And though the Way of the Gospel be attended (especially the powerful profession of it) with some difficulty, yet remember what St. Chrysostom saith,²⁰ Non aspicias aspera est via, sed attende quo ducit, nec considera quod est arcta, sed ubi definit: Regard thou not that the way to Life is streight, but mark whither it leadeth, and where it endeth. *Nemo potest hic gaudere cum seculo, illic regnare cum Deo.*²¹—No Man can have his full contentment and delight, both in this, and God's Kingdom. Consider Souls,²² God's Tabernacle is in Salem, and his Dwelling-place is in Sion: How then shall we esteem of the Truth,²³ and Worship of God? and desire to meet him where he hath promised his Presence, setting a low esteem of the Glory, and Grandure of this World, in its greatest Riches. Consider all true, and lasting Felicity, and Riches, are in Christ; and as St. Bernard saith,²⁴ O Lord Jesus, he that will not live to Thee, is worthy of Death, and is already Dead; and he that is not Wise to Thee, is become a Fool; he that desireth any Being but for Thee, is to be esteemed as nothing, &c. Oh consider what Christ hath done for us! As St. Augustine hath it,²⁵ Oh Son of God! how great was thy humility! how great was thy Charity! How exceeding was thy Pity! I sinned, thou art Chastised; I offended, thou art Punished; I was disobedient, thou Obedient for me; I transgressed, and thou art Tortured, &c. Harken to the Word of God as St. Ambrose adviseth us,²⁶—Interrogentur Scripturæ, &c. that is, Consult with the Scripture, the Apostles, the Prophets, what they spake, Christ speaketh.

But if it be said, the Scriptures be hard to be understood: Consider what St. Augustine hath said, in answer to such an Objection.²⁷ Magnificè, & salubriter Spiritus Sanctus Scripturas ita modificavit, ut locis apertioribus fami occurreret, obscurioribus autem fastidia detergeret, nihil ferè de illis obscurioribus eruit, quod non planissimè alibi dictum reperiatur.

The Holy Ghost hath therefore magnificently and wholsomely so tempered the Scriptures, that by plain, and easie places, he might prevent Famine: By obscure places, he might wipe away all Loathsomness (or Disdain): for nothing almost, is gathered out of those obscure places, which is not in some other places delivered plainly.

And this Authority of the Word of God, its an Honour upon the Ministry thereof, that we should honour them, and hearken to them, when they come in the Name of Christ; for Christ saith, Qui vos audit, me audit: He that heareth you, heareth me. Therefore let such that make no conscience of disdain, and reflecting calumniously upon the sober godless Ministers, or Servants of Christ, forbear such practice; for God saith, Touch not mine anointed, and do my Prophets no harm; and the dust of their Feet, will be a witness against such Persons (if they do not repent) in the Day of Judgment.

Finally, Consider Immortal Souls! This place you are now in, is not Terra viventium, the Land of the Living, which maketh us blessed, and which the Meek shall inherit: But Terra morientium, the Land of the Dying, wherein we dwell as Strangers and Pilgrims, for a short time: And as the Vail of the Temple before it was rent, did hinder us from the sight of the Cherubims, and Mercy seat: So must our Corruptions be rent from us, which hinder us from the beatifical sight of Christ, our Saviour. Sed si recte Deum amemus. But if we truly love God the Father, and Jesus Christ and his Kingdom, (this love will symbolize our Minds, into that which we love; for the Mind is not where it liveth, but where it loveth). An endeavour so to live in this World, that short time to have to live among the Wicked, and slanderous backbiting Tongues, and tempestuous proud Waves, and dangerous Rocks of Heresie, and ungodly Professors; who glory more in their formal name of a Christian, or Professor, than they care, or endeavour to live in the power of it; that being too straight a way, or too heavy a burthen for many now a-days. Yet the Godly should be as Lillies themselves, Quae in sas utique pungentes se spinas candors proprio illustrare non cessant: Which in their own Beauty do adorn the Thorns themselves, by whom they are pricked. And though their proud Waves beat upon thee, and to be as Thorns to thee, yet ne tribuletur Cardes tuum,²⁸ let not thy Heart be troubled; for this Jesus Christ is Musick in the Ear, Pleasure and Comfort in the Heart. So that from your experience of God's Grace, thou wilt say with the Psalmist,²⁹ O how amiable are thy Dwellings, O Lord of Hosts? My Heart and my Flesh shall rest in the Living God.

Consider these things, Christian Reader, which are here humbly proposed, to that end the Protestant Interest might be united in the love of, and practice, and power of Godliness, in Church and Family; and Heresie oppugned, and Hereticks detected, Schism prevented, and Scandals removed, were undeserved and humble Souls comforted, and all good Christians in the unity of the true Faith, established according to God's Word; and Christian Congregations reformed, and Obedience to Superiours (in all lawful things) performed. These, and such like, being the Main Ends of our publishing this Confession of Faith at this time: Therefore if any shall Censure it, we only beg this favour, That first they will be pleased to weigh and consider, those things herein proposed, in the ballance of the Sanctuary, according to our Saviour's Rule,³⁰ to Search the Scripture, &c. And like the noble Bereans,³¹ to search and see whether these things be so or no, and after that to judge. And as St. Paul saith,³² To prove all things, and hold fast that which is good; and contend earnestly for the Faith that was once delivered to the Saints. And if thou findest any Profit, or Advantage to thy Soul, give God the Glory, and help us by thy Prayers, and we have our End. Vale.

Of the Divine Nature, or Godhead of Christ.

We confess and believe, that the Son of God, or the Eternal Word, is very and true God,⁶¹ having his Personal Subsistence of the Father alone,⁶² and yet for ever of himself as God, and of the Father as the Son, the Eternal Son of an eternal Father; not later in Beginning.⁶³ There was never any time when he was not,⁶⁴ not less in Dignity, not other in Substance,⁶⁵ Begotten without diminution of his Father that begat, of one Nature and Substance with the Father; Begotten of the Father, while the Father communicated wholly to the Son, which He retained wholly in himself, because both were Infinite;⁶⁶ without inequality of Nature, without division of Essence, neither Made, nor Created, not Adopted, but Begotten before all Time,⁶⁷ not a Metaphorical, or subordinate God;⁶⁸ not a God by Office, but a God by Nature, Coequal,⁶⁹ Coessential,⁷⁰ and Coeternal, with the Father,⁷¹ and the Holy Ghost.

Of the Union of the two Natures in Christ.

We believe the Person of the Son of God, being a Person from all Eternity existing, did assume the most pure Nature of Man,⁸³ (wanting all Personal Existing of its own)⁸⁴ into the Unity of his Person, or Godhead,⁸⁵ and made it his own; the properties of each Nature being preserved, and this Inseparable and Indissolvable union of both Natures, and was made by the Holy Ghost, Sanctifying our Nature in the Virgins Womb,⁸⁶ without change of either Nature, or mixture of both;⁸⁷ and of two Natures is one Christ, God-Man, or Immanuel, God with us.⁸⁸ Which Mystery exceeds the Conception of Men, and is the wonder of Angels, one only Mediator, Jesus Christ, the Son of God.⁸⁹

Of the Communication of Properties.

We believe that the two Natures in Christ, continue still distinct in Substance, Properties, and Actions,⁹⁰ and remain one and the same Christ:⁹¹ for the Properties of the Godhead, cannot agree to the Properties of the Manhood, nor the Properties of the Manhood, to the Properties of the Godhead. For as the Godhead, or Divine Nature cannot Thirst, or be Hungry, no more can the Manhood be in all, or many places at once. Therefore, we believe the Godhead was neither turned nor transfused into the Manhood, nor the Manhood into the Godhead, but both; the Divine Nature keepeth entire all his Essential Properties to it self, so that the Humanity is neither Omnipotent, Omniscient, nor Omnipresent: And the Humane also keepeth his Properties, though often that which is proper to the one Nature, is spoken of the Person denominated from the other,⁹² which must be understood by the Figure Senecdoche, (viz.) A part being taken for the whole, by reason of the Union of both Natures into one Person.

Of the Holy Spirit.

We believe that there is one holy Spirit, the Third Person subsisting in the Sacred Trinity;⁹³ one with the Father and Son, who is very and true God; of one Substance, or Nature, with the Father and Son,⁹⁴ Coequal, Coessential, and Coeternal with the Father and Son, to whom with the Father and Son, Three Persons, and but one Eternal and Almighty God,⁹⁵ be by all the Hosts of Saints and Angels, ascribed Eternal Glory and Hallelujahs. Amen.

Of Predestination and Election.

The decrees of God are founded on Infinite Wisdom, and situate in Eternity,⁹⁶ and are Crowned with Infallibility as to the Event.⁹⁷ Now Predestination unto Life, is the everlasting Purpose of God:⁹⁸ whereby before the Foundation of the World was laid, he hath constantly Decreed in his Counsel secret to us,⁹⁹ to deliver from Curse and Damnation, those whom he hath chosen in Christ,¹⁰⁰ and bring them to everlasting Salvation, as Vessels made to Honour,¹⁰¹ through Jesus Christ, whom he Elected before the Foundation of the World,¹⁰² and is called God's Elect, in whom his Soul delighteth;¹⁰³ being the Lamb fore-ordained,¹⁰⁴ and so Predestined unto the Superlative Glory of the Hypostatical Union.¹⁰⁵ And this not for any foreseen Holiness in his Humane Nature (sith all that did flow out of the Hypostatical Union) being Elected of meer Grace, as are all the Members of his Mystical Body.¹⁰⁶ And God the Father gave this his Elected and Beloved Son, for a Covenant to the People, and said, *That his Covenant shall stand fast with him; and his seed shall endure for ever.*¹⁰⁷ And albeit God the Father be the Efficient Cause of all good Things he intended to us,¹⁰⁸ yet Christ is the Meriting Cause of all those good Things God intended to us in Election, (viz.) Repentance, Faith and sincere Obedience to all God's Commandments.¹⁰⁹ And so God the Father, that He might bring about the Eternal Salvation of his Elect, chose the Man Christ, with respect to his Humane Nature, out of the fallen lump of Mankind,¹¹⁰ which in the fullness of Time, he made of a Woman, made under the Law, to redeem those that were under it;¹¹¹ that we might receive the Adoption of Sons.¹¹² And though Christ came from Adam, as Eve did,¹¹³ yet not by Adam as Cain did,¹¹⁴ viz. by natural Propagation. Therefore without any stain of Sin,¹¹⁵ and this second Adam, being by God's Eternal Decree, excepted out of the first Covenant, as being neither God the Father, who was justly offended; nor yet sinful Adam, who had offended him in breaking of it.—Therefore Christ the Second Adam was a fit Mediator between God and Man, to reconcile both in himself,¹¹⁶ by the shedding and sprinkling of his Blood, according to God's Eternal Purpose in Electing of Christ, and of all that do, or shall believe in him; which Eternal Election, or Covenant-Transaction between the Father and Son,¹¹⁷ is very consistent with his revealed Will, in the Gospel.¹¹⁸ For we ought not to oppose the Grace of God in Electing of us, nor yet the Grace of the Son in Dying for all Men (and so for us); nor yet the Grace of the Holy Ghost in propounding the Gospel, and persuading us to believe it:¹¹⁹ For until we do believe, the effects of God's displeasure are not taken from us; for the Wrath of God abideth on all them that do not believe in Christ;¹²⁰ for the actual declaration in the Court of Conscience, is by Faith as an Instrument,¹²¹ (not for Faith as a Meriting Cause): for Christ is the Meriting Cause of eternal Life to all that believe, but not of God's Will to give eternal Life to them, nor yet of God's Decree to save us,¹²² albeit we are chosen in Christ before the Foundation of the World. Now Faith is necessary as the way of our Salvation, as an Instrumental Cause:¹²³ but the Active and Passive Obedience of Christ, is necessary as a Meriting Cause of our Salvation;¹²⁴ therefore God's Eternal Decree doth not oppose his revealed Will in the Gospel,¹²⁵ it being but one, not two diverse or contrary Wills. For his decree as King, decreeth the Event, or what shall be done infallibly; but his Command as a Lawgiver,¹²⁶ sheweth not what shall be done, but what is the duty of Man to do, and leave undone: Therefore God hath (we believe) decreed, that Faith as the means, and Salvation as the end, shall be joynd together, that where one is, the other must be also:¹²⁷ for it is written, *He that believeth, shall be saved.*¹²⁸ Also, *Believe in the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved.*¹²⁹ Now here is a great Mystery indeed, for God so administereth his absolute Decree, that he leaveth us much place for an Efficacious Conditional-Dispensation,¹³⁰ as if the Decree it self were conditional.

Of Original (or Birth) Sin.

Original Sin, is the fault and corruption of the Nature of every Man,¹⁶³ that naturally descendeth from Adam by natural Generation; by means of which, Man has not only lost that Original Righteousness, that God created him in, but is naturally inclined to all manner of evil, being conceived in Sin, and brought forth in Iniquity;¹⁶⁴ and (as St. Paul saith) *The flesh lusteth against the spirit.*¹⁶⁵ And therefore every Man justly deserveth God's Wrath and Damnation.¹⁶⁶ And this Concupiscence, or indwelling Lust, remaineth even in the Regenerate, that they cannot love; nor obey God perfectly in this Life, according to the tenour of the First Covenant.¹⁶⁷

XVI. Article.Of the New Covenant of Grace.

The first Covenant being broken by Man's Disobedience, and by his Sin, he was excluded from the Favour of God, and Eternal Life; in which deplorable condition of his, God being pleased out of his Free-Grace, and Love to fallen Man,¹⁶⁸ (in order to his recovery out of this sinful and deplorable Estate) hath freely offered him a Second, or a New Covenant of Grace,¹⁶⁹ (which New Covenant of Grace is Jesus Christ) in remission of Sins, through Faith in his Blood,¹⁷⁰ which God hath promised to give to all them that do obey and submit to the conditions of this Covenant,¹⁷¹ which Covenant of Grace, and Eternal Salvation annexed to it, is freely and fully offered unto all Men, upon the terms of the Gospel, viz. Repentance, and Faith: And the Benefits of this Covenant, by God's Free-Grace, through the Redemption that is in Jesus Christ, whom God hath set forth to be a Propitiation through Faith in his Blood,¹⁷² to declare his Righteousness for the Remission of sins that are past through the forbearance of God, that he might be Just, and the Justifier of him that believeth in Jesus. Therefore we conclude, that a Man is Justified by Faith, without the deeds of the Law:¹⁷³ for by Faith we receive that Righteousness that the Law, or the First Covenant, required of the first Adam; which Righteousness Christ hath fulfilled (in our Nature which he took of the Virgin Mary) by his Active Obedience,¹⁷⁴ and is by God's free Donation, made over to us by Imputation,¹⁷⁵ for he hath made him to us Wisdom, Righteousness, and Sanctification:¹⁷⁶ For as by one Man's Disobedience, many were made Sinners, so by the Obedience of one (that is Christ) shall many be made Righteous. For Christ hath not only fulfilled the Sanction of the Law, (viz.) to love God with all his Heart, and his Neighbour as himself, but hath also voluntarily suffered the Curse of the Law, being made a Curse for us;¹⁷⁷ that we might receive the Blessing of Abraham, and the Promise of the Spirit through Faith, in his Blood.¹⁷⁸ And now, albeit the Essential Righteousness of Christ, as he is God equal with his Father, be not imputed

Of Christ and his Mediatorial Office.

It pleased God, in his Eternal Purpose, to chuse, and ordain the Lord Jesus Christ, his only begotten Son, according to the Covenant made between them both,¹⁸³ to be the alone Mediator between God and Man,¹⁸⁴ (viz.) God the Father, who was by Adam's sin justly offended, and Adam (our common Parent) the person offending. Now in order to reconcile God to Man, and Man to God, who were at distance, Christ Jesus the Second Person in the Trinity, being very God, of the same Substance with his Father, did, when the fulness of Time was come, take unto him Man's Nature, with all the Essential Properties, and common Infirmities, (Sin only excepted) being made of a Woman, of the Seed of Abraham,¹⁸⁵ and David:¹⁸⁶ And although he came from Adam, and had truly the Nature of Man, (yet not by Adam); and the Person of Christ, took our Nature into union with the Divine Nature, but he did not take the Person of Adam which sinned;¹⁸⁷ therefore we believe he was neither the Covenantee, nor yet the Covenanter, and so by consequence, neither the Creditor, nor the Debtor. And being concerned by this Office or Appointment of the Father to make Peace,¹⁸⁸ it plainly appears, that he is the only fit Mediator between God and Man,¹⁸⁹ who is very God, and very Man; yet one Christ; who was Sanctified, and Anointed with the Holy Spirit above measure,¹⁹⁰ and was Superlatively, and Admirably fitted for, and called unto this Office

Of Christ Dying for all Mankind.

God the Father, out of his Royal Bounty, and Fountain of Love, when all Mankind was fallen by Sin, in breaking of the first Covenant of Works made with them in Adam, did chuse Jesus Christ, and sent him into the World to die for Adam, or fallen Man. And God's love is manifest to all Mankind, in that he is not willing, as himself hath Sworn, and abundantly declared in his Word, that Mankind should perish eternally,²¹¹ but would have all to be Saved, and come to the knowledg of the Truth: And Christ died for all Men, and there is a sufficiency in his Death and Merits for the Sins of the whole World,²¹² and hath appointed the Gospel to be preached unto all;²¹³ and hath sent forth his Spirit to accompany the Word, in order to beget Repentance and Faith:²¹⁴ So that if any do Perish, it's not for want of the means of Grace manifested by Christ to them, but for the non-improvement of the Grace of God, offered freely to them through Christ in the Gospel.²¹⁵

Of the Agreement between the Old and New Testaments.

The Gospel, or New Covenant, was held forth, or preached to the Fathers, from Adam to Christ's coming in the Flesh,²¹⁶ though it was revealed by sundry Degrees, and in diverse Manners,²¹⁷ in Types and Shadows, darkly;²¹⁸ yet it was the same Gospel, the same Christ, the same Faith (for kind), and the very same Covenant, that they were justified and saved by, before Christ took Flesh of the Virgin, that we have now, and is to continue to the end of the World.²¹⁹ For as the Church of the Jews in their Gospel Types had a Priest, and an Altar, and a Lamb, and a Fire, and without all these no Sacrifice could, or was accepted of God, then nor now, without Faith in the Antitype Christ, whose Humane Nature is the true Lamb, the Union of Natures, the High Priest, the Divine Nature, the Altar, and the Holy Ghost, the Heavenly Fire.²²⁰ And again, the Blood shed upon the Brazen Altar, may be applied to our Justification, and the sprinkling of it upon the Incense Altar, may be applied to the Work of Sanctification by Christ's²²¹ Spirit, sprinkling his Blood upon us.²²² And the Blood that was carried within the Vail, into the most Holy Place, is applied to our Glorification in Heaven.²²³ And as they had in their Church the Ark, a figure of Christ's Presence; so have we the Promise of his Presence to the end of the World.²²⁴ And as they had the Tables of the Old Covenant, or Law, in the Ark; so have we the Law fulfilled by Christ;²²⁵ and meeting God in Christ, it's handed forth by Christ now to us,²²⁶ as the only rule of our Sanctification, and Obedience, through his Grace. And as they had the Manna to nourish them in the Wilderness to Canaan; so have we the Sacraments to nourish us in the Church, and in our Wilderness-condition, till we come to Heaven. And as they had the Rod that Corrected them; so have we the Church-Censures now to Correct us,²²⁷ when we offend his Law. And their Burnt-offering may be applied to Christ, killing of Original Sin in us, and their Sin-offering may be applied to Christ killing, or taking away our Actual Sins; and their Peace-offering may be applied to our Reconciliation with God in Christ by his Spirit; and so all the rest of those Gospel-Antitypes may be applied. And thus the Old and New Testaments, like the Faces of the Cherubims, look one toward another, and hold forth the self-same Gospel-Salvation to them and us.

XXII. Article.Of Angelical Repentance.

Unfained Repentance, is an inward and true sorrow of heart for Sin,²⁴⁰ with sincere confession of the same to God, especially that we have offended so gracious a God, and so loving a Father;²⁴¹ together with a settled purpose of Heart, and a careful endeavour to leave all our sins and to live a more holy and sanctified Life, according to all God's Commands.²⁴² Or it is a turning, or change of the whole Man to God, with endeavour through his Grace, to mortifie the indwelling Lust, or Corruptions,²⁴³ and obtain a great reformation both in the outward and inward Man, according to the Will of God; and this Repentance, for the nature of it, must be continued throughout the whole course of our Lives,²⁴⁴ and is wrought in us by the Spirit of God, by the Ministry of the Law and Gospel,²⁴⁵ in order to our obedience to Christ, or being Baptized in his Name,²⁴⁶ but this Repentance unto Life is not wrought without Faith in the Soul;²⁴⁷ for by Faith we receive that Grace that perfects, or carrieth on the Work of Repentance in the Soul from first to last.²⁴⁸

XXIV. Article.
Of Justification by Christ.

Justification is a Declarative, or Judicial Sentence of God the Father,²⁵⁶ whereby he of his infinite Love, and most free Grace, for the alone and Mediatorial Righteousness of his own Son, performed in our Nature and stead; which Righteousness of God-Man, the Father imputing to us,²⁵⁷ and by effectual Faith received and embraced by us,²⁵⁸ doth free us by Judicial Sentence from Sin and Death, and accepts us Righteous in Christ our Surety, unto Eternal Life;²⁵⁹ the Active and Passive Obedience of Christ being the Accomplishment of all that Righteousness and Sufferings the Law, or Justice of God required;²⁶⁰ and this being perfectly performed by our Mediator, in the very Nature of us Men,²⁶¹ and accepted by the Father in our stead,²⁶² according to that eternal Covenant-Transaction, between the Father and Son.²⁶³ And hereby we have a deliverance from the Guilt and Punishment of all our Sins, and are accounted Righteous before God, at the Throne of Grace, by the alone Righteousness of Christ the Mediator, imputed, or reckoned unto us through Faith; for we believe there are six necessary Causes of Man's Justification, or Salvation. (Viz.) First, The Efficient Cause of our Justification, is God's free Grace.²⁶⁴ Secondly, The Meritorious Cause is the Blood of Christ.²⁶⁵ Thirdly, The Material Cause is Christ's Active Obedience.²⁶⁶ Fourthly, The Imputation of Christ, his Obedience for us, is the Formal Cause.²⁶⁷ Fifthly, The Instrumental Cause is Faith.²⁶⁸ Sixthly, God's Glory, and Man's Salvation, is the final Cause.²⁶⁹ Now we principally apply the first and last to God the Father, the second and third to Christ the Mediator, the fourth and fifth to the blessed Comforter, the Holy Ghost; hence it is we are Baptized in the Name of the Father, of the Son, and Holy Ghost,²⁷⁰ and so we worship a Trinity in Unity, and Unity in Trinity, I John 5.7.

XXV. Article.Of Reconciliation and Sonship by Christ.

Two Priviledges flow out of our Justification by Faith in Christ, (viz.) Our Reconciliation, and Adoption, or Sonship. Reconciliation is a gracious Privilege, whereby we that were Enemies, are made Friends; or we that were Enemies, Rebels, and Aliens, are received into Favour, or brought near to God through Faith in Christ Jesus.²⁷¹ And Adoption is that power and privilege to be the Sons of God, through Faith in Christ our Surety,²⁷² who being the Eternal Son of God, became by Incarnation our Brother,²⁷³ that by him God might bring many Sons unto Glory;²⁷⁴ according to his Eternal Decree of preserving the Humane Nature of Christ, that it never fell in Adam.²⁷⁵ And so we are, by Faith according to God's free Grace, and Christ's Purchase, or Redemption, and the Holy Spirits application of it to us, made Heirs, and Joint-heirs with Christ our Elder Brother,²⁷⁶ of the same Kingdom, and stupendous and unutterable Glory, for ever and ever.

Flesh. Yet through the continual supply of strength from Christ, which flows from him to Believers by means of the Covenant of Grace,²⁸⁴ or Hypostatical Union with our Nature, the Regenerate part doth overcome, pressing after a Heavenly Life, in Evangelical obedience to all the Commands that Christ, their King and Lawgiver, hath commanded them in his Word, or holy Scriptures,²⁸⁵ which are the only Rule, and square of our Sanctification and Obedience in all good Works, and Piety. And sith our only assistance to good Works (such as God hath commanded) is of God, who worketh in us both to will and to do,²⁸⁶ we have no cause to boast, nor ground to conclude, we merit any thing thereby, we receiving all of free and undeserved Grace, and when we have done the most, yet we are unprofitable Servants, and do abundantly fall short; and the best duties that we can now perform, will not abide the Judgment of God:²⁸⁷ Neither do any good Works whatsoever, that are done by Unregenerate Men, or without Faith in, and Love to Christ, please God, or are accepted of him.²⁸⁸ Yet good Works are of great advantage, being done in Faith, and Love, and wrought by the Holy Spirit,²⁸⁹ and are to be done by us, to shew our thankfulness to God, for the Grace of the New Covenant by Christ, and to fit us more and more for Glory:²⁹⁰ And in this sence, the Ten Commandments, as handed forth by Christ the Mediator, are a Rule of Life to a Believer, and shew us our Duty to God and Man, as also our need of the Grace of God, and Merit of Christ.

XXVIII. Article.Of the right Subject and Administration of Holy Baptism.

Baptism is an Ordinance of the New Testament, ordained by Jesus Christ to be unto the Party Baptized, or Dipped, a Sign of our entrance into the Covenant of Grace, and ingrafting into Christ, and into the Body of Christ, which is his Church;²⁹³ And of Remission of Sin in the Blood of Christ,²⁹⁴ and of our Fellowship with Christ, in his Death and Resurrection, and of our living, or rising to newness of Life.²⁹⁵ And orderly none ought to be admitted into the Visible Church of Christ, without being first²⁹⁶ Baptized;²⁹⁷ and those which do really profess Repentance towards God, and Faith in, and obedience to our Lord Jesus Christ, are the only proper Subjects of this Ordinance, according to our Lord's holy Institution, and Primitive Practice; and ought by the Minister, or Administrator, to be done in a solemn manner, in the Name of the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,²⁹⁸ by Immersion or Dipping of the Person in the Element of Water;²⁹⁹ this being necessary to the due Administration of this holy Sacrament, as holy Scripture sheweth, and the first and best Antiquity witnesseth for some Centuries of Years.³⁰⁰ But the Popish Doctrine which they teach and believe, that those Infants that die without Baptism, or have it not actually, or in desire, are not, nor cannot be saved, we do not believe. Nor yet their practice of admitting Persons only upon an Implicite Faith of the Church; nor their Superstitious and Popish Ceremonies of Salt, and Spittle, and Breathing on the Face of the party Baptized; together with their Chrisoms and hallowed Lights.³⁰¹ Neither do we believe, that Infants dying in Infancy without Baptism, go to Purgatory or Limbus Infantum, as they erroneously teach. Nor do we believe, that the Pope of Rome, or any other Persons whomsoever, have power to alter, or change, this Ordinance of Christ, as they have done by these Superstitious, and such like Idolatrous Inventions and Practices of the Romish Church. All which Superstitions of theirs, are contrary to Christ's Institution, or the Apostles Practice of holy Baptism.

Of Prayer, with Laying on of Hands.

Prayer, with Imposition of Hands by the Bishop, or Elder, on Baptized Believers (as such), for the reception of the Holy, Promised Spirit of Christ, we believe is a Principle of Christ's Doctrine, and ought to be practised and submitted to by every Baptized Believer, in order to receive the Promised Spirit of the Father, and Son.³²⁸

Neither is that Popish Doctrine of Transubstantiation to be admitted, nor Adoration of the unbloody Sacrifice³³⁷ of the Mass, as they call it, together with their denying of the Cup to the Laity, and many more Idolatrous, and Superstitious Practices, decreed in the Popish Councils of Lateran, and Trent,³³⁸ In opposition to which, and such like Idolatry of Rome, many of our worthy and famous Ancients and renowned Protestants, lost their lives by Fire and Faggot³³⁹ in England, whose Spirits (we hope) are now in Heaven, as worthy Martyrs and Witnesses of Christ, in bearing a faithful Testimony to this holy Ordinance of their Lord and Master. Neither may we admit of Consubstantiation, it being not consonant to God's Word. Nor are little Infants, that cannot examine themselves, nor give Account of their Faith, nor understand what is signified by the outward signs of Bread and Wine, to be admitted to this Sacrament. Though St. Austin taught so from John 6.63. and many of the Greek Churches so believe and practise to this Day. And this holy Ordinance ought to be often celebrated among the Faithful, with Examination of themselves, (viz.) of their Faith, and Love, and Knowledg, of these holy and divine Mysteries, lest they eat and drink their own Damnation, for prophaning of God's holy Ordinance,³⁴⁰ as many (we fear) have done, and (yet) do at this Day; whose hard and blind Hearts the Lord in Mercy open, if it be his blessed Will.

XXXVIII. Article.

Of the Three Creeds.

The Three Creeds, (viz.) Nicene Creed, Athanasius his Creed, and the Apostles Creed, (as they are commonly called) ought thoroughly to be received, and believed. For we believe they may be proved by most undoubted Authority of holy Scripture, and are necessary to be understood of all Christians; and to be instructed in the knowledg of them, by the Ministers of Christ, according to the Analogie of Faith, recorded in sacred Scriptures (upon which these Creeds are grounded), and Catechistically opened, and expounded in all Christian Families, for the edification of Young and Old; which might be a means to prevent Heresie in Doctrine, and Practice, these Creeds containing all things in a brief manner, that are necessary to be known, fundamentally, in order to our Salvation; to which end they may be considered, and better understood of all Men, we have here Printed them under their several Titles as followeth, (viz.)

The Apostles Creed.

I Believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of Heaven and Earth; and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord: Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried, he descended into³⁷¹ Hell, the third Day he rose again from the Dead, he ascended into Heaven, and sitteth on the Right Hand of God the Father Almighty, from thence he shall come to judg the Quick and the Dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy Catholick ³⁷¹*Not that he (to wit) Christ went into the place of the Damned, but that he went absolutely unto the state of the Dead. See Dr. Usher, in his Body of Divinity, p.174. and Mr. Perkins on the Creed.*

Church; the Communion of Saints; the Forgiveness of Sins, the Resurrection of the Body, and the Life everlasting. Amen.

The Nicene Creed.

We believe in one God the Father Almighty, Maker of all things Visible, and Invisible; and in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the Son of God, the only begotten Son of the Father, that is of the Substance of the Father, God of God, Light of Light, Very God of very God, Begotten, not made, being of one Substance with the Father, by whom all things were made, both the Things in Heaven, and the Things in Earth; Who for us Men, and for our Salvation, came down, and was Incarnate, he was made Man; he suffered, and rose the third Day, he ascended into the Heavens: He shall come to judge both the Quick and the Dead. And we believe in the Holy Ghost. Therefore they which say, there was a time when he was not, before he was begotten, or that he had his Beginning of nothing, or that he is of another Substance, or Essence; or that affirm the Son of God to be Made, or to be Convertible, or Mutable, these the Catholick and Apostolick Church of God, doth pronounce for Accursed.

Athanasius his Creed.

Whosoever will be saved, before all things it is necessary that he hold the Catholick Faith.

Which Faith except every one do keep whole and undefiled, without doubt he shall perish everlastingly.

And the Catholick Faith is this, That we worship one God in Trinity, and Trinity in Unity. Neither confounding the Persons, not dividing the Substance.

For there is one Person of the Father, another of the Son, and another of the Holy Ghost.

But the Godhead of the Father, of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost, is all one; the Glory equal, the Majesty Coeternal.

Such as the Father is, such is the Son, and such is the Holy Ghost.

The Father uncreate, the Son uncreate, and the Holy Ghost uncreate.

The Father Incomprehensible, the Son Incomprehensible, and the Holy Ghost Incomprehensible.

The Father Eternal, the Son Eternal, and the Holy Ghost Eternal; and yet they are not three Eternals, but one eternal.

As also there are not three Incomprehensibles, nor three Uncreated, but one Uncreated, and one Incomprehensible.

So likewise the Father is Almighty, the Son Almighty, and the Holy Ghost Almighty; and yet they are not three Almighties, but one Almighty.

So the Father is God, the Son is God, and the Holy Ghost is God; and yet they are not three Gods, but one God.

So likewise the Father is Lord, the Son Lord, and the Holy Ghost Lord; and yet not three Lords, but one Lord.

For like as we are compelled by the Christian Verity, to acknowledg every Person by himself to be God and Lord. So are we forbidden by the Catholick Religion, to say there be three Gods, or three Lords.

The Father is Made of none, neither created, nor begotten. The Son is of the Father alone, not made, nor created, but begotten. The Holy Ghost is of the Father, and of the Son, neither made, nor created, nor begotten, but proceeding.

So there is one Father, not three Fathers; one Son, not three Sons; one Holy Ghost, not three Holy Ghosts.

And in this Trinity, none is afore, or after other; none is greater, or less than another, but the whole three Persons be Coeternal together and Coequal; so that in all things, as is aforesaid, the Unity in Trinity, and the Trinity in Unity, is to be worshipped.

He therefore that will be saved, must thus think of the Trinity.

Furthermore, it is necessary to everlasting Salvation, that he also believe rightly the Incarnation of our Lord Jesus Christ.

For the right Faith is, that we believe and confess, that our Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of God, is God and Man. God of the Substance of the Father, begotten before the Worlds: And Man of the substance of his Mother, Born in the World; perfect God, and perfect Man, of a reasonable Soul, and Humane Flesh subsisting. Equal to the Father as touching his Godhead, and inferiour to the Father as touching his Manhood; who although he be God and Man, yet he is not two but one Christ. One not by conversion of the Godhead into Flesh, but by taking of the Manhood into God. One altogether, not by confusion of Substance, but by unity of Person: For as the reasonable Soul and Flesh is one Man, so God and Man is one Christ, who suffered for our Salvation, descended into Hell, rose again the third Day from the Dead, he ascended into Heaven, he sitteth on the Right Hand of the Father God Almighty; from whence he shall come to judge the Quick and the Dead.

At whose coming all Men shall rise again with their Bodies, and shall give account for their own Works. And they that have done good, shall go into Life everlasting, and they that have done evil, into everlasting Fire. This is the Catholick Faith, &c. Which, every one should believe faithfully.

XXXIX. Article.Of General Councils, or Assemblies.

General councils, or Assemblies, consisting of Bishops, Elders, and Brethren,³⁷² of the several Churches of Christ, and being legally convened, and met together out of all the Churches, and the Churches appearing there by their Representatives, make but one Church; and have lawful right and suffrage in this General Meeting, or Assembly, to act³⁷³ in the Name of Christ; It being of Divine Authority,³⁷⁴ and is the best means under Heaven to preserve Unity, to prevent Heresie, and Superintendency among, or in any Congregation whatsoever within its own Limits, or Jurisdiction.³⁷⁵ And to such a Meeting, or Assembly, Appeals ought to be made, in case any Injustice be done, or Heresie, and Schism countenanced, in any particular Congregation of Christ; and the Decisive Voice in such General Assemblies is the Major part, and such General Assemblies have lawful power to Hear, and Determine, as also to Excommunicate.³⁷⁶

XL. Article.Of Religious Worship, and the Sabbath-Day.

And hath limited us, by his own revealed Will, that he may not be worshipped according to the Imaginations and Devices of Men, or the Suggestions of Satan, under any visible Representations whatsoever,³⁷⁸ or any other way not prescribed in the holy Scriptures: and all Religious Worship is to be given to the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, and to God alone;³⁷⁹ not to Angels, Saints, or any other Creature, and since the Fall, not without a Mediator,³⁸⁰ nor in the Mediation of any other but Christ alone;³⁸¹ nor is this Worshipping of God now under the Gospel, tied to any place, or made more acceptable by one place than another.³⁸² Yet the Assembly of the Church, ought not to be neglected by any.³⁸³ And in order to his being worshipped, and served, God hath instituted one Day in Seven,³⁸⁴ for his Sabbath to be kept holy unto him; which from the Resurrection of Christ, is the First Day of the Week,³⁸⁵ which is called the Lord's Day, and is to be observed and continued to the end of the World, as a Christian Sabbath, the last Day of the Week being abolished. And this Christian Sabbath is to be kept after a due and reverent manner, in preparing of our Hearts, and ordering of Affairs so beforehand, that we may rest that Day from Worldly and Carnal Employments,³⁸⁶ and frequent the solemn Assemblies of the Church,³⁸⁷ and in all publick and private Duties of Religion; as Hearing, Meditating, and Conferring, and Reading in, or of the holy Scriptures,³⁸⁸ together with Prayer, publick and private, and in the duties of Necessity, Charity, and Mercy, and not in any vain or Worldly Discourse, or idle Recreations whatsoever.³⁸⁹

Of Children dying in Infancy.

We do believe, that all little Children dying in their Infancy, (viz.) before they are capable to chuse either Good or Evil,⁴⁰⁹ whether born of Believing Parents, or Unbelieving Parents, shall be saved by the Grace of God, and Merit of Christ their Redeemer, and Work of the Holy Ghost,⁴¹⁰ and so being made Members of the Invisible Church, shall enjoy Life everlasting;⁴¹¹ for our Lord Jesus saith, *of such belongs the Kingdom of Heaven.*⁴¹² Ergo, We conclude, that that opinion is false, which saith, That those little Infants dying before Baptism, are damned.

XLVI. Article.

Of Liberty of Conscience.

The Lord Jesus Christ, who is King of Kings, and Lord of all by Purchase,⁴²² and is Judg of Quick and Dead, is only Lord of Conscience;⁴²³ having a peculiar right so to be; He having died for that end, to take away the Guilt, and to destroy the filth of Sin; that keeps the Consciences of all Men in Thralldom, and Bondage, till they are set free by his special Grace. And therefore he would not have the Consciences of Men in Bondage to, or imposed upon, by any Usurpation, Tyranny, or command whatsoever, contrary to his revealed Will in his Word,⁴²⁴ which is the only Rule he hath left, for the Consciences of all Men to be ruled, and regulated, and guided by, through the assistance of his Spirit. And therefore the obedience to any Command, or Decree, that is not revealed in, or consonant to his Word, in the holy Oracles of Scripture, is a betraying of the true Liberty of Conscience.⁴²⁵ And the requiring of an implicate Faith, and an absolute blind Obedience, destroys Liberty of Conscience, and Reason also, it being repugnant to both.⁴²⁶ And that no pretended good end whatsoever, by any Man, can make that Action, Obedience, or Practice, lawful and good,

Of Marriage.

Marriage is to be between one Man, and one Woman; neither is it lawful for any Man, to have more than one Wife, nor for any Woman to have more than one Husband, at the same time.⁴²⁸ And it is lawful for all sorts of People to Marry, who are able of judgment to give their consent.⁴²⁹ But Marriage must not be within the degree of Consanguinity, or Affinity, forbidden in the Word,⁴³⁰ nor can any such Incestuous Marriages ever be made lawful by any Law of Man, or consent of Parties, to live together as Man and Wife.⁴³¹ And it is the Duty of Christians to Marry in the Lord;⁴³² and therefore those that profess the true Religion, ought not to marry with Infidels, or Idolaters, nor prophane wicked Persons in their life, nor yet with any that maintain damnable Heresies.

XLIX. Article.

Of the state of Man after Death, and of the Resurrection of the Dead.

The Bodies of Men after Death, return to Dust,⁴⁴¹ and see Corruption; but their Souls, or Spirits, which neither die nor sleep, having an Immortal Subsistence, immediately return to God who gave them;⁴⁴² the Souls of the Righteous being then made perfect in Holiness, are received into Paradise, where they are with Christ, and behold the Face of God in Light and Glory, waiting for the full Redemption of their Bodies;⁴⁴³ and the Souls of the Wicked are cast into Hell, where they remain in Torment and utter Darkness, reserved to the Judgment of the great Day.⁴⁴⁴ And besides these two places, for Souls separated from their Bodies, the holy Scripture mentions none. And at the last Day, such of the Saints as shall be found alive, shall not sleep, but be Changed;⁴⁴⁵ and all the Dead shall be raised up with the self-same Bodies, and none other, although with different Qualities,⁴⁴⁶ which shall be united to their Souls for ever and ever: but the Bodies of the unjust, shall by the Power of Christ, as a severe and just Judge, be raised to Dishonour;⁴⁴⁷ and the Bodies of the Just and Righteous; by his Spirit, as he is Head of the Catholick Church, unto Honour,⁴⁴⁸ and be made conformable with his Glorious Body,⁴⁴⁹ and shall enjoy everlasting Life, in singing perpetual Praises, and Hallelujahs to God, for ever and ever. *Amen.*⁴⁵⁰

L. Article.Of the last Judgment.

And lastly, We believe, God hath appointed a Day, wherein he will judg the World in Righteousness, by Jesus Christ,⁴⁵¹ to whom all Power, and Judgment is given of the Father; in which Day, not only the Apostate Angels shall be judged, but likewise all Persons that have lived upon the Earth, shall appear before the Tribunal of Christ, to give an account of their Thoughts, Words, and Deeds,⁴⁵² and shall receive a just Sentence, according to what they have done in their Bodies, whether Good, or Evil, when God according to his purpose, will manifest the glory of his Mercy, in the salvation of his Elect;⁴⁵³ and of his Justice in the eternal damnation of the Wicked and Disobedient:⁴⁵⁴ for then shall the Righteous go into everlasting Life, and receive the fullness of Joy and Glory;⁴⁵⁵ but the Wicked, who know not God, nor obey the Gospel offered them in Christ, shall be cast into eternal Torments,⁴⁵⁶ and punished with everlasting Destruction,⁴⁵⁷ from the Presence of the Lord, and from the Glory of his Power. Amen.

Post-script.

Courteous Reader,

I Doubt not but that some of these things before premised in this Confession of Faith, especially those Articles that relate to the Doctrine of the ever Blessed Trinity, and Justification by the Blood, Merits, and Satisfaction of Jesus Christ our Saviour; Together with the Authority of the holy Scriptures, and that Godly Doctrine manifestly asserted in those three Creeds we have published; all which Doctrine in part, or whole, will have little entertainment by some, and without question great opposition from many, that do oppose the Church of England, and others also, as well as us, in these great Fundamental Truths, wherein we are all agreed, (viz.) The Doctrine of the Trinity, and Christ's Satisfaction to his Father's Justice, for sinful Man. And no wonder there is such Instruments, and Cunning Sophisters abroad: For it's evident that Satan knows, that if the Foundations be destroyed, we shall be at a loss; and what greater Foundation than that which is laid, even Jesus Christ, (viz.) The True Christ, God Man, or Immanuel, God with us. But St. Peter sheweth us, that some shall bring in such damnable Heresies into the World, in denying this true Object of Faith and Worship, and so worship and believe a meer Idol, and Invention of their own. And now altho these Articles be passed over with brevity, as some may judge, and yet happily others may, and will conclude they are too large, and have too much repetition in the Preface, &c. in many of them, which the Critical will call Tautologies, &c. Let them if they please; yet the Sober and Intelligent, will conclude there is need of it; for the benefit of the Ignorant and meaner sort of People, for whose sakes it is written in a plain manner, for their Instruction, and as brief as it could for the benefit of the poorer sort, who cannot buy great Volumes.
